

HAYWARD COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT
PARENTS ASSISTING CANES

Minutes

November 3rd, 8:15 - 9:15 AM

1. Attendance: Craig Olson, Kelly Ryder, Michele Forrester, Stacy Hessel, Janelle Disher, Kris Thompson, Aaron Halberg, Sally Beckwith
2. Administrative Report Update (Mr. Olson) -
  - a. Close Contacts - new rules, letter going out to parents today.
  - b. Waiting for COVID 19 testing supplies to be delivered. We will be using our people to do the testing. Parents will need to sign a consent for students to be tested and parents will be called before the test will be administered.
  - c. Survey Results from the referendum test are in - they are looking good to move forward with the referendum. The task force will look at all results at the next meeting and set a plan from there.
  - d. Some of the school buses do have cameras on them - that is a decision from the bus company we hire.
  - e. Bullying - what is out there for kids to cope with bullying. Counselors, admin, teachers, staff do their best to help. There is a room in each school if a student wants to just go there as a safe space. Is there a peer group? Yes, there is a group step up. What can we do to make our kids more resilient? We do teach the tools through everyday teaching.
  - f. Chartwell is still using throw-away containers - can we request that they use reusable containers? Talking to Jo Hyatt is the first step.
3. Curriculum and Programs Report Updates (Mrs. Ryder)
  - a. We are teaching resiliency - we have utilized outside resources to help teachers learn to be able to help the students through difficult times. The 7 minds sets program for social/emotional learning is used throughout the District.
  - b. State Reports card will be released later this month. We will discuss them as soon as the data is released.
  - c. Huge guided reading push in the elementary school.

- d. Revamping employee evaluation - giving better feedback.
  - e. Sub shortage - we are doing the best we ca. Staff have been taking on extra duties to make sure we are keeping students safe and staying open.
4. Primary Update
- a. 30+ Wraparound care is going well
5. Intermediate Update
- a. 3rd Wednesday of the month 8:30
  - b. Career Day was a success
  - c. Working on getting a Sensory/Activity Room. Working on increasing brain-based/movement-based activities.
